Vienna, November 7, N. S.

THE 2d Inſtant a long Conference was held at the Palace; after which ſeveral Meſſengers were diſpatched to the Miniſters of his Imperial Majeſty who are reſiding at divers Courts in the Empire. The Aulick Council at War have not yet expedited the Circular Letters for the Reduction of the Imperial Troops, of which Mention has been made. It is now even ſaid, that this Reduction will not take Place ſo ſoon as was thought, ſince we continue with the ſame Diligence as heretofore to raiſe Recruits to compleat the Imperial Regiments. Upon the Repreſentations and Inſtances of the Elector of Mentz and of the four aſſociated Circles, the Emperour has reſolved to cauſe a Regulation to be made concerning the March of the Troops, in which the daily Allowance for Soldiers will be fixed upon an equal Foot, and conformable to the Conſtitutions of the Empire, in order to prevent all Diſputes and Complaints; and it is aſſured that the Count de Kuffſtein will be charged with the Commiſſion of preſenting this Reſolution to his Electoral Highneſs. It is ſaid that the Miniſter of Genoa at this Court has deſired a new Reinforcement of Imperial Troops, in order to be better enabled to ſubdue the Rebels of Corſica: It is alſo ſaid, that he has complained to the Miniſter of the Emperour againſt ſome neighbouring Nations, for ſupplying the Rebels with Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition.

Paris, Aug. 21, N. S. The Queen has named the Count de Teſſe, her Gentleman of the Horſe, to go and compliment the Infante Don Carlos upon the Frontiers, and he is to ſet out immediately with the Duke de Tallard. The King has been pleaſed to confer the Government of Fort Louis on the Marqueſs de Rottelin, the Income of which is reduced from 12000 Livres a Year to 7000. On the 19th the Marqueſs de Caſtelar, the Grandees of Spain, and the Knights of the Golden Fleece, went to compliment the young Queen Dowager of Spain on occaſion of the Feſtival of St. Elizabeth, whoſe Name the Queen of Spain bears, and they had the Honour to kiſs her Hand. The ſame Day the Imperial Miniſter gave a magnificent Entertainment at Supper to all the Foreign Miniſters, and ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction, on occaſion of the Feſtival of the Empreſs's Name; and there was afterwards a Ball.

Whitehall, November 16.

By the laſt Letters from Mr. Keene, His Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Spain, there is Advice, that the
